

2024 Board of Directors Nominee Bio

Name Patricia Mitchum

Tell us a little bit about yourself and your philosophy.

My broker, Amanda Owen and I are co-owners of Partners Real Estate in Mustang. We run our office the way we run our personal businesses, with honesty and integrity. I feel like to be a successful REALTOR® you have to have three things, honesty, integrity, and compassion. I think those traits must be directed not only to the buyers and sellers, but to our fellow agents and vendors that we encounter along the way. Our industry runs the great risk of being undervalued and underappreciated. I believe that to preserve it, we have to show our worth and earn the respect of the public and those we work for and with.

What sparked your interest in serving on the OKCMAR Board of Directors?

My first broker, Keith Taggart, always encouraged me to be involved in our association. He wanted me to understand the importance of not only being a good REALTOR® but being a positive asset to the association and to the real estate community as a whole. Last year when I became co-owner of our brokerage, I realized that the success of the industry is far greater than my office. Me taking care of my little corner of the world just isn't enough. I have to be willing to step out and go the extra mile. I believe I can do that by serving on the OKCMAR Board of Directors.
