What motivated your desire to serve on the OKCMAR board?	I have had many goals in real estate when it came to production and I have exceeded those in a short time. I love helping others succeed. I want to be a leader in the industry when it comes to helping others to get homeownership. I want to leader by example and be a role model for agents in the industry. I want to help raise the bar for the new generation culture of real estate agents.
