

Standing Committees

Standing Committees are permanent and ongoing. They are not renewed annually and do not serve at the discretion of the President.

Special Committees

Special Committees are committees that are not classified as Standing Committees. All Special Committees are formed at the discretion of the President and require Presidential approval. The President has the authority to appoint all Chairs and committee members, who serve at the President's discretion.